The move was confirmed by Alabama interim athletic director Bill Battle on Wednesday afternoon. "I have been following Coach Koetter's work for many years and I am delighted to be working with him and the entire UA football family on this exciting new venture," said Battle. "Dirk has a tremendous ability to get the best out of his players, and I am confident he will continue to do so at the University of Alabama." Koetter is a native of Metairie, La. He played defensive back at Southern Mississippi from 1984-87 and graduated with a degree in marketing. Koetter became the 14th head coach in Crimson Tide football history last week after spending the past six seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Koetter's Bucs won a franchise-record 11 games in 2010, but he was dismissed after the Bucs missed the playoffs. Koetter's record in Tampa was 30-40 overall and 13-27 in the NFC South. Koetter spent three seasons as a defensive assistant for the Tide, including the 2003 season when Alabama finished 10-1, defeating Texas 38-21 in the Sugar Bowl. "I would like to thank Bill Battle and the University of Alabama for this opportunity," said Koetter. "I would like to also thank the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and my family for the support they have given me over the years. It has been a wonderful ride. "We want to wish all our Tide fans a happy and successful New Year!" "We appreciate Coach Koetter's dedication and loyalty to the University of Alabama," said UA president Dr. Robert Witt. "This is a tremendous opportunity for him 82157476af
